

Waking up the neighbors

Rick Schweinhart/Journal

Fast-moving hydroplanes like this one left watery rooster-tails across Lake Sammamish yesterday at the Hydros on Lake Sammamish event, part of the second annual Tustin' and Racin' family festival. The event — the Eastside's answer to Seafair and Bite of Seattle — drew thousands and featured more than 50 hydros in all classes as well as food booths, rides and live music at Lake Sammamish State Park.